OLEK BONDONIO

Barbaresco, Piemonte

Olek Bondonio's in an old farmhouse named 'La Berchialla' which sits amongst Barbaresco's most famous crus and has been in his family for 200 years.

He used to visit the farmhouse each summer, studying the vineyard workers with intent. A seed was sown and after conquering Italy as a snowboarder, he turned his mind to wine, working in the Langhe and also abroad before returning home to look after the family's vineyards.

Olek is lucky enough to work with some of the very best sites in Piemonte and does everything he can to make sure each wine speaks of this wonderful place.

Vineyard work is fantastic, with a real attention to detail borne from doing everything himself, while his winemaking exhibits a patience beyond his years.

The resulting wines are pure, old-fashioned expressions of Piemonte's many wonderful grapes.

LANGHE NEBBIOLO
2018

Nebbiolo from young vines planted on the steep clay slopes of Staderi, one of Barbaresco's most famous crus. This spent a month on skins, before being transferred to botti grandi for élevage. This has everything we look for in great Nebbiolo from this part of the world, with fine tannins, subtle power and delicate flavours of earth and rose. A wine that over delivers in every way.
