OLEK BONDONIO

Barbaresco, Piemonte

Olek Bondonio's in an old farmhouse named 'La Berchialla' which sits amongst Barbaresco's most famous crus and has been in his family for 200 years.

He used to visit the farmhouse each summer, studying the vineyard workers with intent. A seed was sown and after conquering Italy as a snowboarder, he turned his mind to wine, working in the Langhe and also abroad before returning home to look after the family's vineyards.

Olek is lucky enough to work with some of the very best sites in Piemonte and does everything he can to make sure each wine speaks of this wonderful place.

Vineyard work is fantastic, with a real attention to detail borne from doing everything himself, while his winemaking exhibits a patience beyond his years.

The resulting wines are pure, old-fashioned expressions of Piemonte's many wonderful grapes.

LANGHE ROSSO GIULIETTA
2018

Pelaverga is Piedmont's answer to Pineau d'Aunis, a light, bright and fragrant varietal with plenty of charm. The majority of the fruit here comes from Olek's Roncagliette vineyard in Barbaresco which is blessed with a southern exposure and firm clay-limestone soils. This spends a couple of weeks on skins, before being pressed off to rest for a year in tank. It has the characteristic flavours of wild strawberries and white pepper, but thanks to this great terroir, comes with some fine little tannins to boot.
